

What was your first watch like?

It was a yellow electronic watch。 It was actually very simple. There were no hands, just the digits showing the time, and the wristband was very wide.

Do people still wear watches in your country?

Yes, people in China still wear watches. Students for instance they need a watch to check the time in their exams.

How often do you wear a watch?

I only wear a watch when there is an exam. I have to use it to be aware of the time and adjust my speed during the exam, because cellphones are not allowed.

What kinds of watches do you like to wear?

I prefer electronic watches. I can tell the time just by reading the numbers on the dial. And they have a reminder feature which can remind me of important appointments.