

What kinds of sports are popular in China?

There are a range of sports that are popular. For example, running, basketball, badminton and so on. We can see people doing these sports in many public parks and sports centers.

What kinds of sports would you like to try in the future?

I would love to try figure skating. I often watch it on TV. It's a perfect combination of skill and art. So, I'm looking forward to having a chance to try it myself.

Do you have a favourite sports star?

Yuzuru Hanyu, the Japanese figure skater, is my favourite. He not only has great skills in figure skating but also is tough. Once, he even continued to finish his show when he was injured during that performance.

Do you like to watch sports on TV?

I do actually. I enjoy watching figure skating. It's really inspiring and encouraging to see the athletes stand up and skate on after accidentally falling on the ice.

Do you play any sports?

I go swimming. I swim about twice a week in summer and on a month in winter. It can help me deal with pressure and negative feelings.
