

What's the most popular app in your country?

It's definitely WeChat, a Chinese equivalent of WhatsApp. Nearly everybody has it on their mobile phones. People can send text messages and have audio video calls. And it is very convenient to make the payments with WeChat when shopping.

What was the first app you used?

The first app I used...it was around high school when I had my first mobile phone, I guess it was QQ, a social networking app. It was very popular at that time, and I joined different kinds of chat groups. However, it is replaced by WeChat.

What kinds of apps do you often use?

I often use the social networking apps like WeChat, the Chinese version of WhatsApp, or the entertaining apps like NetEase cloud music. I use them either for socializing or for entertaining.

What kinds of apps would you like to have in the future?

I'm not quite addicted to technology, honestly speaking. I think there are all kinds of apps right now, apps for learning, exercising and financing, etc. They are more than enough for me.

Do old people in your country like to use apps?

No, most of the old people don't like new things. and they find the apps too complicated and far beyond their abilities. So, they won't try using apps.
