

If someone wants to draw a picture of you, will you agree?

That would be nice. I'd love to see what I look like from other' perspective. Even if the drawing turns out to be less satisfying, I wouldn't get mad because I appreciate the offer.

What kind of paintings do you like?

If I have to name one, I would say oil paintings. I have a friend who currently runs an art gallery where there are quite a lot of interesting oil paintings. Sometimes I'd hang out in the gallery and talk about the works with him.

Is it important to hang pictures at home?

I don't think it's necessary to use general pictures as decorations at home. I would rather hang something else on the wall to make the room special and interesting, such as some handcraft items.

Have you learned drawing or painting?

Yes. I had painting classes every month at primary school. However, the skills I learned were quite basic, and I think my works were not good ones at that time.

What do you know about paintings?

Honestly, I don't know much about this area. I only took some painting lessons when I was little. I haven't had a chance to do that for many years.
